Thank you for your interest in participating in the Wilmington Ballet Company's production of A Fantasy Tea Party & Ballet. This package is intended to prepare you and your dancer for the audition process. We would like to share with you some of the important information you will need prior to the March 6 audition date. Detailed information can be found in our handbook, which is accessible online at www.wilmingtonballetcompany.org.

- ❖ Dancers must be at least in Kindergarten at the time of audition in order to participate.
- ❖ There is a participation fee of $125, payable at the time of registration. Scholarships are available to dancers that meet economic guidelines.
- ❖ You are required to complete volunteer jobs – one before theatre week, one during theatre week and assist with load-out.
- ❖ Rehearsals will begin Saturday, March 13, 2010. There will be 8 weeks of Saturday rehearsals. There will not be rehearsals on Saturday, April 3, 2010. There are no absences allowed. Any potential conflict MUST be put in writing and submitted to the board at the time of auditions.
- ❖ Violations to absence or volunteering requirements will result in removal from the show.
- ❖ The Wilmington Ballet Company's email address is info@wilmingtonballetcompany.org. Please use this email address for communication. DO NOT CONTACT THE CHOREOGRAPHERS FOR ANY INFORMATION!
- ❖ The rehearsal schedule will be handed out the week after the audition. Rehearsals will be on Saturdays.
- ❖ Theatre week is May 10-15. During this week, there is a possibility of extra rehearsals.

Please do not audition if you are not willing to take whatever part is given and see it through to the end as a team player. Any dancer who drops out after the audition (exceptions only for true life emergencies) will not be allowed to audition for the following season.

The Wilmington Ballet Company was founded in 1999 as a Federal Non-Profit 501 3-c.
